HOBİ awards dinner

The Willows in Wallingford was voted Connecticut's best traditional community.

On Tuesday, Nov. 10, an impressive 700 home building industry professionals attended the HOBİ awards dinner at the Aqua Turf in Southington. Sponsored by the Home Builders Association of Connecticut, the HOBİ (Home Building Industry) awards is the state's most prestigious program recognizing excellence in new construction, land development, remodeling, sales and marketing and home financing.

VW Homes, a partnership of Wallingford builders, Verna Properties and Sunwood Development, won Best Traditional Community for the Willows, a 65-home new old-fashioned single family community off North Farms Road in Wallingford. Since its grand opening last year, 20 homes have been purchased at the Willows by a mix of transferees, empty nesters and young families.

VW Homes team accepting their HOBİ award, Jim Thomas, Bob Wiedenmann, Mike Kamens, Steve Montessano (William Raveis Real Estate), Gerald Verna, Liz Verna, Amy Wiedenmann and Greg Kamens.
